

The background of the image is a soft-focus scene of green and blue lights, likely from a stage or concert. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of several people's heads and shoulders are visible, suggesting they are an audience watching a performance.

2017 | 2018 SEASON

ANTELOPE VALLEY COLLEGE PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE

WELCOME

On behalf of the Antelope Valley Community College District Board of Trustees and the entire college community, I am pleased to announce the upcoming season at our beautiful, state-of-the-art Performing Arts Theater complex. The generous support of citizens of the Antelope Valley provided the capital funds which made the construction of this outstanding facility possible. We are very grateful for this support and extremely proud of this wonderful theater complex. This year the college is celebrating its 88th year, and the calendar of performances are a tribute to our storied history.

As always, the faculty and staff of our Visual and Performing Arts Department, in collaboration with local artists, have developed a varied and exciting calendar of events for the community to enjoy. This year we offer some brand new genres as well as some past favorites. The events range from symphony orchestra concerts performed by the Antelope Valley Symphony to vocal performance by the community's Master Chorale and concerts by our jazz and rock band ensembles.

In the fall semester, we offer Tidbits, a sampling of many musical genres. We will also play host to The Secret City, a performance gathering that is free to the public and promises to be a treat for anyone who enjoys the arts. In addition, our Theatre Arts Department will mount a production of Mary Shelley's timeless classic, Frankenstein.

Our spring lineup is equally as exciting as the symphony will feature concerts highlighting the works of Brahms, Debussy, and a special concert showcasing the winners of the annual Bach Competition; the return of our successful One Act Play Festival; Dancing with the AV Stars; Dance Dimensions; A Night at the AVC Improv; and Shakespeare's Birthday Celebration.

As you can see our calendar is full of performances which appeal to all age groups and entertainment appetites. Please plan to join us in our beautiful theater complex and enjoy the compelling performances planned this year.

Symphonic Band and Performing Arts Departments Showcase

September 30, 2017 | 7 pm

Enjoy selections from the upcoming season of the Symphonic Band, as well as the Departments of Commercial Music, Dance, Music and Theatre Arts. Join us as we kick off the '17-'18 Performing Arts Season with a celebration of all that the AVC Performing Arts Departments have to offer!

Tidbits

November 18, 2017 | 7 pm

The AVC Symphonic Band will be joined by the Antelope Valley Chamber Music Society in a concert exploring various "tidbits" of repertoire. Come enjoy orchestral transcriptions, contemporary works, old band suites and chamber music.

STAGE VOICE

December 5, 2017 | 7 pm & May 22, 2018 | 7 pm

Admission is FREE.

Join us for a concert featuring solo vocal performances by students from the Commercial Music Program's Stage Voice class. Students perform popular styles of music including Rock, Pop, R&B, and Country.

Ascension

March 17, 2018 | 7 pm

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day by attending an event dedicated to one of Europe's many great pieces of art: Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy. This multimedia presentation will feature the Antelope Valley Chamber Music Society and the AVC Symphonic Band performing Robert W. Smith's complete first band symphony, The Divine Comedy.

Westward Bound

May 12, 2018 | 7 pm

Join the AVC Symphonic Band, Antelope Valley Chamber Music Society and many others as they explore the spirit of the West Coast. This multimedia festival will feature a number of different mediums, as artists explore what it means to live in the west and embody the wild spirit of the region. The AVC Symphonic Band will play works by Hollywood film composers, nature enthusiasts and westward pioneers.

THEATRE

Open To Their Minds

September 13, 2017 | 7 pm

Admission is FREE

How do we change when we touch another animal? An interdisciplinary collaboration between Anthropology Professor Darcy Wiewall, Choreographer Cindy Littlefield and Theatre Practitioner Eugenie Trow explores how interaction between species alters our world.

The Secret City

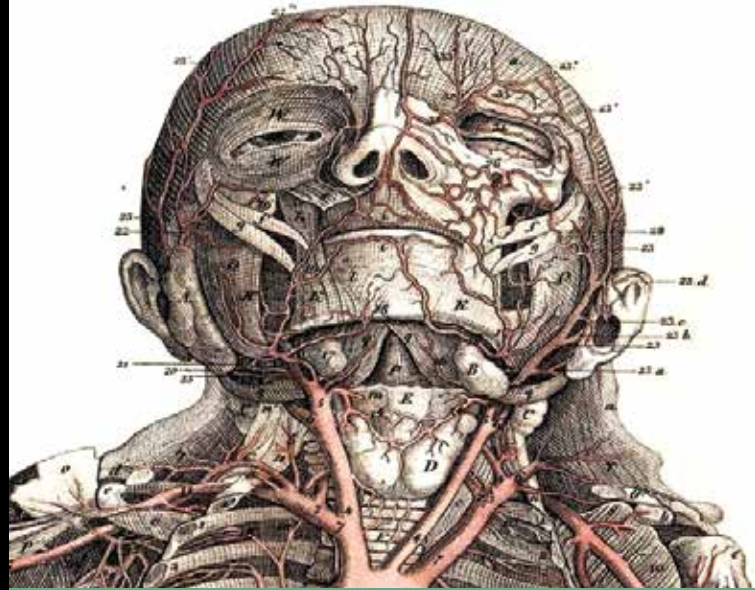

October 22, 2017 | 2 pm

Admission is FREE

Founder, Artistic Director, Obie Award winner and Antelope Valley native Chris Wells created The Secret City as an ongoing performance gathering for people who believe in the arts.

Each event has a visual art component, food offering, live music, guest performances, storytelling, community interaction, silent meditation, special outfits and JOY, which is central to the mission of The Secret City. The performance is open to all, and will provide free childcare.

For more information, visit www.theseecretcity.org.

Frankenstein

By Mary Shelley • Adapted by Austin Tichenor

November 3, 4, 10 & 11 | 8 pm & November 12, 2017 | 2 pm

Tickets: $12 • Senior, Student & AVC Staff $8

In honor of Veterans Day, admission to any performance is free with a Military ID.

Victor Frankenstein suffers the unintended consequences of his technological achievements when he learns to fear his own creation. By stitching together the remains of stolen corpses and infusing life into that which had been dead, Frankenstein then must become accountable for his Creature, who becomes a homicidal monster. Mary Shelley's timeless tale of horror holds warnings for a society intent on innovation without thought for the costs that could be incurred.

SYMPHONY & CHORALE

Antelope Valley Symphony Orchestra and Master Chorus

David Newby, Artistic Director

Romantic Concerto

October 21, 2017 | 8 pm

Ludwig van Beethoven, Violin Concerto
Mischa Lefkowitz, violin

Felix Mendelssohn, Symphony No. 5
in D Major (Reformation)

Los Angeles Philharmonic violinist and international soloist Mischa Lefkowitz performs the first great romantic violin concerto, Beethoven's Violin Concerto in D Major. The Orchestra performs Mendelssohn's Bach-inspired Symphony No. 5, which integrates well-known hymn tunes from the composer's church.

Handel's Messiah and More

December 9, 2017 | 8 pm

December 10, 2017 | 4 pm

Classical and popular selections combine for a complete holiday celebration! Celebrate the 275th anniversary of Handel's timeless masterwork Messiah, then enjoy Christmas and Chanukah songs, concluding with an audience sing-along of the season's best known carols.

The Virtuoso Concert

March 24, 2018 | 7 & 8 pm

Bach Competition Winners
Gala Recital | 7 pm

Concert | 8 pm

Concerto movements TBA, based on results of AVSOMC music competitions

Winners of AVSOMC's music competitions perform with the Antelope Valley Symphony Orchestra. Winners of the Gail Newby Concerto Competition and the Antelope Valley College Concerto/Aria Competition perform solos with orchestra. Bach Competition winners perform a recital prior to the concert.

Love and Longing

May 19, 2018 | 8 pm

Johannes Brahms, Alto Rhapsody
Aumna Iqbal, Mezzo soprano

Claude Debussy, "Sirènes" from Nocturnes

Romantic choruses celebrate anniversaries for Brahms and Debussy. Set for male chorus and soloist, Brahms's Alto Rhapsody is a heartfelt plea for redemption for a man without love. Debussy's shimmering chorus depicts the Homeric legend of women's voices that soar over the waves to lure enraptured sailors to the rocks.

Tickets for each performance: $21 • Senior, Military, AVC Staff $19
Youth (under 18), AVC Students (with student ID) $11

A Night at the AVC Improv

The Great American Justice Game

By Miguel Gonzales-Pando

February 1, 2 & 3 | 8 pm

February 4, 2018 | 2 pm

(Black Box Theatre) Tickets: $8

The day the American dream became a nightmare! Set in a not-too-distant future, this biting satire by the late Cuban-American playwright Miguel Gonzales-Pando looks at the American justice system through the lens of a game show, with points given to the defense and the prosecution. Satirizing the English-only movement, Gonzales-Pando imagines a United States in which speaking Spanish is illegal. It is all too clear that for some segments of our society, the "American Dream" is one step away from an existential nightmare!

Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse

By Kevin Henkes

Adapted by Kevin Kling

April 21 & 22, 2018 | 2 pm

Tickets: $10 |

Senior, Military, Student, AVC Staff $8

The irrepressible mouse heroine of Kevin Henkes' well-loved stories bursts to life when Lilly, the "Queen of Everything," joins the characters from two of Henke's other books, Chester's Way, and Julius, Baby of the World. Children can relate to Lilly and her friends as she comes to terms with the mixed feelings she has regarding her new baby brother, her arsenal of disguises that make her feel brave and the joy of sharing her secret language with her best friends. This adaptation captures childhood with a funny, yet sincere approach.

21st Annual Original One-Act Play Festival

(Black Box Theatre)

May 17, 18, 19 | 8 pm

May 20, 2018 | 2 pm

Tickets: $8

The festival offers AVC students, staff and faculty the opportunity to see their plays onstage in workshop productions. Theatre Arts students and faculty work together to design, direct, act, and work as crew in order to bring the words in the scripts to life. World premieres!

DANCE

Fall Final Dance Showings

November 29 & 30, 2017 | 7 pm

Tickets $11 • Senior, Military, Student, AVC Staff $7

A showcase production of some of the best work by students in Dance Department classes. Selected by their instructors, students present a variety of dances they have worked on during the semester to experience dance as a performance art and to complete their final grade.

Dance Dimensions 2018

April 13 & 14, 2018 | 7 pm

Tickets: $19 • Senior, Military, Student, AVC Staff $16

Join Dance Dimensions in exploring invigorating concepts through the ever-powerful and cathartic expression of dance. Dance Dimensions' performance will incorporate the many worlds of dance to typify the cross-cultural symbolism through modern/contemporary dance, hip-hop, ballet, tap, and even social dance.

Dance Finals Performances

May 15 & 16, 2018 | 7 pm

Tickets: $11 • Senior, Military, Student, AVC Staff $7

The Dance Finals Performances recital was created for the students to have an opportunity to show family and friends the movements that they have accomplished in their technique classes. Since dance is considered a performance art, it also gives the students a chance to feel what it's like to perform in front of a live audience. Thank you for supporting our dancers!

MISS HIGH DESERT

Scholarship Pageant

October 8, 2017 | 5 pm

Tickets: $20

Join us for an electrifying night and be there in person to see the crowning of the next Miss High Desert!

The Miss High Desert scholarship program is so much more than just a simple beauty pageant. It is a serious preliminary competition to select the perfect young lady to represent the entire Antelope Valley, Santa Clarita Valley and parts of Kern County at the highly regarded Miss California Pageant held annually in late June at the Saroyan Theatre in Fresno. It provides all the outstanding contestants an opportunity to win generous and significant scholarships to help defray the cost of their college educations. But best of all, it qualifies our winner to perhaps ultimately compete in Atlantic City, New Jersey for the ultimate title that is every little girl's and young woman's dream: Miss America. Don't miss this spectacular event!

Antelope Valley College

SPRING FASHION SHOW

May 10, 2018 | 6 pm

Admission is FREE

The Antelope Valley College Clothing and Textiles–Fashion Design program presents their annual spring fashion show, featuring garments designed, constructed and modeled by program students and graduates.

Door prizes will be awarded throughout the show.

DANCING WITH THE ANTELOPE VALLEY STARS

February 17, 2018 | 7 pm Tickets: Gold $37 • Silver $27 • Bronze $20

A dance extravaganza! A special night when eight of Antelope Valley's ballroom dance professionals and their eight Antelope Valley celebrity partners go head-to-head in a dance competition. There will be special dance performances by dance professionals and guest performers. Dancing with the AV Stars will showcase the many dances of Ballroom, Salsa, Latin, and West Coast Swing. This event is a fundraiser for USA Dance AV Chapter for their nationally recognized Dance Force Youth Ballroom Program, which involves participating schools in the Antelope Valley and Kern County. This program serves students in grades 4 through 12 and culminates at Antelope Valley College with the annual High Desert Dance Classic, March 9–11, 2018.

USA Dance AV Chapter is a non-profit organization. Proceeds benefit Dance Force Youth Ballroom Program.
