ANTELOPE VALLEY COLLEGE PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE

Welcome

On behalf of the Antelope Valley Community College District Board of Trustees and the entire college community, I am pleased to announce the upcoming season at our beautiful, state-of-the-art Performing Arts Theatre complex. The generous support of citizens of the Antelope Valley provided the capital funds which made the construction of this outstanding facility possible. We are very grateful for this support and extremely proud of this wonderful theatre complex. This year the college is celebrating its 89th year, and the calendar of performances are a tribute to our storied history.

As always, the faculty and staff of our Visual and Performing Arts Department, in collaboration with local artists, have developed a varied and exciting calendar of events for the community to enjoy. This year we offer some brand new genres as well as some past favorites. The events include a range from symphony orchestra concerts performed by the college symphony and the Antelope Valley Symphony, vocal performance by the community's Master Chorale, concerts by our jazz ensemble, and some delightful theatre and dance productions.

In our fall semester, we offer the timeless Lewis Carroll classic, Alice in Wonderland. International soloist and AV native Jason Stoll will be featured performing a Rachmaninoff piano concerto in the production Symphonic Romance. Jazz is also a favorite in the Antelope Valley and there are several performances planned into the holidays. AVC's all-student Symphonic Band has scheduled some delightful performances, and is well worth the visit.

Our spring is equally as exciting, as the symphony will feature concerts highlighting the works of Brahms, Debussy, and a special concert showcasing the winners of the annual Bach Competition; the return of our successful One-Act Play Festival; Dancing with the AV Stars; Dance Dimensions; A Night at the AVC Improv; and Shakespeare's Birthday Celebration.

As you can see, our calendar is full of performances which appeal to all age groups and entertainment appetites. Please plan to join us in our beautiful theatre complex and enjoy the compelling performances planned this year.
